It's basically a basketful of gently used baby clothing up to 24 months, including blankets, etc. She is contacting social workers, and agencies such as FCSS and churches for referrals of families that could benefit from a layette. Sarah is asking our congregation for gently used baby clothing to help put this together. If you wish to contribute please put these items in the entrance to the hall, behind the bulletin board. St. John the Evangelist, Swan Hills: Sunday 1:00 pm

We, the members of St. Anne's Parish, Barrhead believe and accept Jesus Christ as our saviour and share in the continued ministry of the Catholic Church, in St. Paul Diocese, by partaking in the threefold dimension of kingly, prophetic and priestly ministries of Christ through our baptism. Following the example of St. Anne in utmost humility and gathered around the Eucharistic table, we will imbibe the Spirit of sharing and service to our parish community and to our fellow human beings. Being led by the Holy Spirit, we will deepen our faith through prayer and nourish it through sacraments. As one family of faith, we will volunteer our time and energy for the greater glory of God, in our parish and in general in our community.
