CHUCKLE CORNER

At each of the morning services in one of the churches, the pastor used to tell children a story. During one narration, he stopped to ask if anyone knew the flower associated with the Easter season. One boy quickly put up his hand and answered, "The Narcissus".

The pastor was quite impressed with the boy's knowledge, since most people think lily is associated with Easter. "How did you happen to know that?" the pastor asked the boy. "I attended your first service," was the answer.

Easter Sunday April 16, 2017

"I have risen, and I am with you still, alleluia. You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia. Too wonderful for me, this knowledge, alleluia, alleluia."

HAVE A BLESSED EASTER!

Right at the beginning of the public life Jesus called a few persons to be his disciples, to be with him as his full time collaborators in his mission. They were just ordinary men. But most of them had, it seems, some personal ambitions and desires when they joined Jesus. So Jesus' outlook on life and his teachings were quite new for them. Certainly they had not well comprehended the lesson of suffering or "go in through the narrow gate" (Lk.18:34). Hence, the disciples were despondent over Jesus' passion and death on a cross. It was after the resurrection of Jesus the disciples began to grasp the true meaning and the depth of Jesus' teaching. They could just feel a new life had begun for them. They said to each other, "Wasn't it like a fire burning in us when he talked to us on the road and explained the scripture to us?" The risen Lord continues to invite every one of us to a new life based on His teachings and message.

May the joy of the Resurrection of Christ be filled in your heart and bring peace into your life.

Have a Grace-Filled Easter.
