SAINT OF THE WEEK

SOLEMNITY OF SAINTS PETER AND PAUL

June 29

On June 29th, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul to honor the two great apostles Peter and Paul. Veneration of the two great Apostles has its roots in the very foundations of the Church. They are the solid rock on which the Church is built. They are at the origin of her faith and will forever remain her protectors and her guides.

St. Peter suffered martyrdom under Nero, in A.D. 66 or 67. He was buried on the hill of the Vatican where recent excavations have revealed his tomb on the very site of St. Peter’s Basilica. St. Paul was beheaded in the Via Ostia on the spot where now stands the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls. Down the centuries Christian people in their thousands have gone on pilgrimage to the tombs of these Apostles.

Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith.”

June 23, 2024
12th Sunday In Ordinary Time

First Reading: Job 38.1-4

Job is reminded that God is the Lord of creation, who has the power to do things which humans cannot explain.

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 5.14-17

In Christ everyone is a new creation. A new world is already born.

GOSPEL Mark 4.35-41

Jesus is truly “God-with-us,” and we should turn to him in faithful prayer whenever difficulties overwhelm us.

Fear Not!

The most commonly repeated phrase in the whole Bible, in both the Old Testament and the New Testament, is “Fear not!” or “Have no fear!” or “Do not be afraid!” or “Be not afraid!”

Matthew 6:25-34 – Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes: Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? Can any one of you by worrying add a single hour to your life? And why do you worry about clothes? See how the flowers of the field grown. They do not labour or spin. Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendour was dressed like one of these. If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you – you of little faith? So do not worry, saying “What shall we eat?” or “What shall we drink?” or “What shall we wear?” For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore, do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.
