CHUCKLE CORNER

A man with a nagging secret couldn't keep it any longer. In the confessional he admitted that for years he had been stealing building supplies from the lumberyard where he worked. "What did you take?" his priest asked. "Enough to build my own house and enough for my son's house. And houses for our two daughters and our cottage at the lake."

"This is very serious," the priest said, "I shall have to think of a far-reaching penance. Have you ever done a retreat?" "No, Father, I haven't," the man replied. "but if you can get the plans, I can get the lumber."

13th Sunday In Ordinary Time

First Reading: Wisdom 1.13-15

God does not rejoice in the destruction of the living. Rather, God formed us to be imperishable. If we practise justice we will live forever.

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 8.7,9

Christians should be generous to others in imitation of the total liberality of Christ, who gave his life for the salvation of all.

GOSPEL Mark 5.21-43

Jesus overcomes the death of Jairus' daughter and the ailment of the woman with the hemorrhage. He thus prefigures his victory over the death of alienation from God. Jesus is the Prophet of the end time who has come to bring us life by restoring our relationship of love with God.

Feast of Saint Thomas, The Apostle – July 3rd

Saint Thomas was born a Jew and was called to be one of the original twelve Apostles.

Saint Thomas is best known for his role in verifying the Resurrection of his Master. Thomas' unwillingness to believe that the other Apostles had seen their risen Lord on the first Easter Sunday, earned him the title of "doubting Thomas."

Eight days later, on Christ's second apparition, Thomas was gently rebuked for his skepticism and furnished with the evidence he had demanded - seeing in Christ's hands the point of the nails. Thomas even put his fingers in the nail holes and his hand into Christ's side. After verifying the wounds were true,

Saint Thomas became convinced of the reality of the Resurrection and exclaimed, "My Lord and My God," thus making a public Profession of Faith in the Divinity of Jesus.
