CHUCKLE CORNERS

A farmer entered the local Church and spoke to the Church secretary: "I'd like to speak to the Head Hog at the Trough." The secretary was quite taken aback and responded to the farmer, "Sir, we have no one here by that name." "If you are referring to the priest in charge of this parish, we always respectfully call him Father or Pastor."

"Fine, ma'am, but I want to talk to the person who will take my $25,000 donation for your church." Immediately the secretary responded, "Dearie! Please take a seat and just wait a second. Our Fat Pig will be here with you at once!"

All-Saints Day Celebration, Friday, November 1st

St. Anne's Youth Group and Catechism team invites everyone to join them for Mass, food, games and great company. All parishioners are encouraged to dress as a favourite Saint or Bible figure: best costumes win a prize! (see ideas on Google!). After the 5:30 pm Mass, participants will change into costumes and go to the hall for a potluck meal (6:30 to 7:00pm). Next, all will visit various game stations to learn about specific saints, play games and receive lots of candies/prizes. The celebration will end at 9:00 pm.

Parishioners, please support this activity by

- donating bulk treats and faith-friendly prizes (Rosaries, saint cards, small saint statues, holy stickers, etc)
- helping to decorate the hall
- helping with set-up and clean-up

For more information, contact Alex Marinutti (780-232-8090; email amarinutti@gmail.com).

MISSION: ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST, SWAN HILLS

October 27, 2024
30th Sunday In Ordinary Time

First reading: Jeremiah 31.7-9

Jeremiah's hymn opens with joy. God has bestowed salvation on the people.

Second reading: Hebrews 5.1-6

Every high priest is designated by God. He is selected among the people to be their mediator with God. Non one takes this honour by himself.

Gospel: Mark 10.46-52

Bartimaeus, a blind man, hearing Jesus, called out loudly; "Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus summoned him and, seeing his faith, cured him. Bartimaeus following Jesus.

All Saints' Day, Nov 1 & All Souls' Day Nov 2

All Saints' Day is celebrated on November 1st to remember all saints and martyrs during Christian history. It is followed by All Souls' Day on November 2nd to commemorate those who have passed within the faith.

All Saints' Day is a solemn holy day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. It should not be confused with All Souls' Day, which is observed on November 2, and is dedicated to those who have died.

All Souls Day is a holy day set aside for honoring the dead. The day is primarily celebrated in the Catholic Church, but it is also celebrated in the Eastern Orthodox Church and a few other denominations of Christianity.
