November 24, 2024

34th Sunday In Ordinary Time

First reading: Daniel 7.13-14

Daniel foresees the coming of the Son of Man. He receives all honour and glory. All people of every nation serve him. His kingship shall last forever.

Second reading: Revelation 1.5-8

By the shedding of his Blood, Jesus has made us a royal nation of priests to serve God. The Lord God is the Alpha and the Omega – beginning and the end. He is the almighty.

Gospel: John 18.33b-37

Before Pilate, Jesus states that he is a king but that his kingdom is not of this world. Jesus says that he came into the world. Jesus says that he came into the world to bear witness to the truth.

HOLIDAY GIVING!

YOUTH GROUP: ADOPT A FAMILY

Making a difference in the community we live in!! Share in the gift of giving! Our trees are up at the back of the church with the ornaments on the things families need in our community!

Their ornaments on the trees, with what families are in need of.

Take the ornaments off the tree, buy what is written on the ornament and bring it back to the church & put it in the boxes. The gifts do not need to be wrapped.

Parish News

Next weekend we enter into the Advent Season. The word Advent originates from a Latin word “Adventus” which means “coming” or “arrival.” Advent Season is focused on preparing for the celebration of the three-fold coming of Jesus Christ: his bodily coming at Christmas; the coming of Christ in our daily lives through grace and the Sacraments; and finally, his second coming at the end of time.

Advent has been called a "little Lent," because it traditionally has included a period of increased prayer, sacrifices, fasting and good works. Although the Western Church no longer has a set requirement for fasting during Advent, the Eastern Church (both Catholic and Orthodox) continues to observe it as a period of increased prayer, fasting, and good works.

What we can do: Make a list of activities that we can do during Advent and Christmas that are aligned with Christ's teachings. These can include attending Mass, doing charity work and praying with the family.

ADVENT PENITENTIAL SERVICE: We will celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation in preparation for Christmas on Wednesday December 11, at 3:30 pm for the Catechism children and at 6:30 pm for the rest of the Parish. Priests from Westlock and Whitecourt will help with this sacrament.

CHILDREN'S CHOIR PRACTICE: There will be a short Children's Choir practice after the 9:30 am Mass on Sunday, December 8th. The choir will sing a few songs during our Christmas Brunch the following Sunday morning. Please contact Stephanie for more information (587-987-1309) All youth and children are welcome!

YOUTH GROUP: Wednesday, November 27 from 5 to 7pm.
