A Lesson Plan on Being a Hypocrite

On the 5th Sunday of Lent Year C, the Gospel reading tells the story of Jesus and the woman caught in adultery. The religious leaders try to trap Jesus by asking if she should be stoned according to the law. Instead of condemning her, Jesus responds with wisdom, saying that whoever is without sin should throw the first stone. This challenges the leaders' hypocrisy, as they are quick to judge her while ignoring their own sins. One by one, they walk away, realizing their own faults.

This story from the 5th Sunday of Lent Year C teaches us about mercy, forgiveness, and avoiding hypocrisy. Jesus shows compassion to the woman, encouraging her to leave her life of sin without condemning her. This reminds us not to judge others harshly, as we all have our own weaknesses. It challenges us to be honest about our own faults and to show mercy and understanding to others.

On the 5th Sunday of Lent Year C, we reflect on Psalm 126, which is a psalm of gratitude and joy. It reminds us of times when God turned sorrow into happiness, showing His power to change difficult situations.

GOOD FRIDAY – Needs of the Church In the Holy Land - Collection

Dear Brother in the Episcopate,

This year the Collection becomes an essential resource; after the pandemic with the almost complete interruption of pilgrimages and the small economic activities that Christians in particular have created alongside them, many have been forced into exile. If we want to strengthen the HOLY Land and ensure living contact with the Holy Places, we must sustain Christian communities that, in their various traditions, offer perennial praise to the God-with-us, also in our name. For this to happen, we absolutely need the generous support of your communities.

The Holy Land, the Holy Places, the Holy People of God are your family, because they are the heritage of all of us. I implore you to feel the Collection as one of your pastoral priorities. Pope Francis sends all of you his blessing: God will not forget, especially in this Jubilee Year of Hope, those who have become witnesses of this Providence and instruments of His Peace. Our Christians of the Holy Land await you.

Easter Lilies: If you wish to purchase lilies for the altar for Easter, please contact any store your choice and they will deliver the lilies.

Spring Cleaning: All groups who store materials on church property (sacristy, overflow area, Adoration room, classrooms, closets, basement, shed, fridge, etc.) are asked to discard unwanted items and label important material before the end of May.

Family Ministry: Sunday, April 20. Everyone is Welcome!
