CHUCKLE CORNER

A painter was hired to paint the exterior of a church.

His practice was to thin the paint so that he could make a larger profit.

As he was painting the church a torrential rain began to fall and it washed all of the paint off.

Then, as quickly as the rain began, it ended, and the sun came out.

As the painter gazed skyward, he heard a voice from above saying:
"Repaint ! Go, and thin no more."

MARK YOUR CALENDAR!

VBS 2025 - Join us July 7th - July 11th

as we take off for a Radical Ride On the Wings of Prayer. Get onboard Cat.Chat Airlines, buckle up and prepare to soar through awesome lessons about prayer and how to put it into action. Our VBS is open to all children ages 5-12 as participants and to youth from grades 7-12 as part of our leadership development program. We are excited to already have most of our adult volunteer positions filled but we are still looking for a few more volunteers.

Because of the very generous support of our Knights of Columbus, this program is completely free to all children. Please call the parish office to register your child/youth leader 674 2662. Please call either Dawn Paquette (780-498-3766) or McKenna Klatt (780-284-7284) to volunteer or for more information about the VBS.

DEADLINE for the Bulletin is Wednesday at noon. Email your announcement to office at officebarrheadsta@dostp.ca

MISSION: ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST, SWAN HILLS

May 4, 2025
3rd Sunday of Easter

-Reflections-

"When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus." For the third time Jesus appears to His disciples and on the lake of Genesareth renews the miraculous draught of fishes. The Fathers did not fail to see in the one hundred and fifty-three great fishes that Peter brought to land the neophytes born to supernatural life in the waters of baptism and brought by Peter to the feet of the risen Christ."

SAINT OF THE DAY

Feast of Saints Philip and James, Apostles/Date

Sat, May 3, 2025

James, Son of Alphaeus: We know nothing of this man except his name, and, of course, the fact that Jesus chose him to be one of the 12 pillars of the New Israel, his Church. He is not the James of Acts, son of Clopas, "brother" of Jesus and later bishop of Jerusalem and the traditional author of the Letter of James. James, son of Alphaeus, is also known as James the Lesser to avoid confusing him with James the son of Zebedee, also an apostle and known as James the Greater.

Philip: Philip came from the same town as Peter and Andrew, Bethsaida in Galilee. Jesus called him directly, whereupon he sought out Nathanael and told him of the "one about whom Moses wrote" (Jn 1:45).

As in the case of the other apostles, we see in James and Philip human men who became foundation stones of the Church, and we are reminded again that holiness and its consequent apostolate are entirely the gift of God, not a matter of human achieving. All power is God's power, even the power of human freedom to accept his gifts. "You will be clothed with power from on high," Jesus told Philip and the others. Their first commission had been to expel unclean spirits, heal diseases, announce the kingdom. They learned, gradually, that these externals were sacraments of an even greater miracle inside their persons—the divine power to love like God.

STEWARDSHIP: St. Anne's has many volunteer jobs that rely on the generosity of parishioners. Consider how you might use your talents to serve God and bring joy to others.

You may be able to help occasionally with some of the following ongoing tasks at St. Anne's:

- setting up and taking down (wiping) tables & chairs for activities in the hall
- taking recycling items to the depot
- trimming the grass & shrubs
- maintaining courtyard flowers
- washing exterior windows
- joining annual work parties to clean the interior of the church, hall, classrooms, storage closets, garage, etc.

Contact the Office to add your name to a list of volunteers who may be able to offer help from time to time.
