

The Jubilee Year is a time for spiritual renewal.

Did you know?

What is the Trinity?

The Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church explains it this way: The Church expresses her trinitarian faith by professing a belief in the oneness of God in whom there are three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The three divine Persons are only one God because each of them equally possesses the fullness of the one and indivisible divine nature.

They are really distinct from each other by reason of the relations which place them in correspondence to each other.

The Father generates the Son; the Son is generated by the Father; the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son [CCC 48].

Most Holy Trinity

The Most Holy Trinity—Solemnity

Each year, on the Sunday following the Solemnity of Pentecost we celebrate the Mystery of the Most Blessed Trinity, the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the Mystery of God Himself (The Catechism of the Catholic Church, #234). The Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is an absolute mystery. It is a mystery of faith in the strict sense, one of the mysteries that are hidden in God, which can never be known unless they are revealed by God (The Catechism of the Catholic Church, #237). As the central Mystery of the Christian faith, this mystery reveals that the God whom we worship is neither absent from His people nor fully identifiable with them. The life of Our Lord on earth is a gradual revelation of this Mystery, culminating with the revelation of the Holy Spirit as a Divine Person on Pentecost. The logic of the sacred liturgy rightly places today's Feast on the Sunday after Pentecost.

The Old Testament alluded to the threefold personhood of God, and Jesus explicitly identified the three persons as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Without this revelation from our Lord, human reason alone could never arrive at the realization that God is One in Three.

Parish News

On this Father's Day, we give thanks to God for the fathers in our lives, who are a reflection of our loving Father in Heaven. As we honor them, we recognize their unique calling to love, protect, and guide their families, mirroring God's own care for us.

May God, through the intercession of Mother Mary and Saint Joseph, bless and guide all fathers, as well as these spiritual Fathers, and religious men. May the Holy Spirit, the source of love, kindle our love for God and soften our hearts to love and respect others, especially for our dads and all Priests.

We also remember those fathers who have passed on, knowing they rest in peace with the Father of us all.

May God continue to bless and support all fathers in their journeys, and may they know the comfort of His love.

Psalms 142:1-7

"I cry aloud to the LORD; I lift up my voice to the LORD for mercy. I pour out before him my complaint; before him I tell my trouble. When my spirit grows faint within me, it is you who watch over my way. In the path where I walk people have hidden a snare for me."
