

Canada will be 158 years old. It became a country on July 1, 1867, when the British North America Act was signed. This act united three colonies into one nation.

Canada isn't one thing to everyone, but it's a collection of things that make us all proud. We know, among other things, we're compassionate, hopeful, welcoming, free, fair, creative and still growing. There are so many reasons to be proud to be Canadian.

July 1 is also an opportunity to acknowledge our past and learn from it to better our future. Canadians and all our governments must stay committed to the ongoing work of advancing on the path of reconciliation, helping us live up to the dream of a fully inclusive country for future generations.

SAINTS PETER AND PAUL

June 29 is the
SOLEMNITY of
ST. PETER
&
ST. PAUL
Evangelists and Martyrs

And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell will not overcome it.--- MATTHEW 16:18

Paul, an apostle—sent not from men nor by a man, but by Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead— GALATIANS 1:1

Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles

Feast Day: June 29

Saints Peter and Paul are two of the most important figures in the history of the Church. They were leaders who spread the message of Jesus and helped build the early Christian community. Both are remembered as apostles who gave their lives for their faith. The Church celebrates them together because of their deep connection in spreading the Gospel.

Peter was one of the twelve apostles chosen by Jesus. He became the leader of the apostles and is known as the first Pope. Jesus called Peter "the rock" on which He would build His Church. Peter's role was to guide and strengthen the early Christians.

Paul was not one of the twelve apostles, but he became an important leader. At first, Paul persecuted Christians, but he had a powerful experience of Jesus and became a believer. Paul traveled far and preached to people who had never heard about Jesus. He wrote letters that helped explain the teachings of the Church.

Peter and Paul both died in Rome as martyrs. They gave their lives to follow Jesus. The Church celebrates their feast day on June 29 to honor their work and their sacrifice. Their stories show the courage and faith that built the Church.
