Proverbs 17:6 – “Grandchildren are the crown of the aged, and the glory of children is their parents.”

Proverbs 20:29 – “The glory of youths is their strength, but the beauty of the aged is their grey hair.”

Job 12:12 – “So with old age is wisdom, and with length of days understanding.”

Psalms 92:12-15 – “The righteous flourish like the palm tree, and grow like a cedar in Lebanon. They are planted in the house of the Lord; they flourish in the courts of our God. "I will never forget you" (Isaiah 49:15)

Holy Father

Who watches over every person

Watch over me too when I am elderly.

You have revealed your name to me in Christ,

And You were not discouraged by my frailties.

You hold me tenderly in your hands,

And You caress my lines.

You will never forget me! (see Is 49:15).

Grant that I may not fear my weakness;

Help me learn to love it

Just as You love it.

Help me learn to listen to it

Just as You listen to it.

Help me embrace it

Just as You have chosen it –

You who, though all-powerful, clothed yourself in humility.

May growing old strip away all our pride

and all division

So that we may live these years

united in You.

You will never forget us! (see Is 49:15)

Amen.

"The theme chosen by Pope Leo XIV for the 6th World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly – "I will never forget you" (Is 49:15) – reminds us that God's unwavering love is the ultimate answer to the isolation and neglect so often experienced by the elderly. It brings comfort and hope, assuring us that the Lord knows each of us personally, forgets no one, and loves us unconditionally, even through the frailties of old age".

What we can learn from Martha, Mary, and Lazarus

- July 29 -

Saints Martha, Mary, and Lazarus were three close sibling friends of Jesus from the village of Bethany. Featured prominently in the Gospels, they are remembered for hosting Jesus, their profound expressions of faith, and the miraculous raising of Lazarus.

Lessons from Martha and Mary

The first mention of Martha and Mary can be found in Luke 10, when they welcome Jesus to their home for dinner. After He arrived, Martha was still busy preparing the food, but Mary began listening to Jesus' teachings. As a hostess, Martha was striving to ensure that Jesus felt welcomed and at home in her house, and was upset that her sister did nothing to help her. Luke 10:39-40

The Death and Resurrection of Lazarus

The first time Martha and Mary's brother Lazarus is mentioned in the Bible is in John 11. In this passage, we learn that Lazarus had contracted a terrible illness, and the two women sent Jesus a message with the hope that He would come to their village and heal him. However, Jesus did not arrive until four days after Lazarus died. Instead of remaining at home with her sister upon Jesus' arrival, Martha went out to greet Him. She did not react to the lateness of His coming with sorrow or anger, but with calm understanding. John 11:21-22
