Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael:
A Guide to the Archangels' Feast

Who are Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael? Explore their biblical roles, the September 29 feast, and simple ways to pray and celebrate at home.

Catholics celebrate Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael on September 29. These three archangels appear by name in Scripture and serve God in distinct ways: Michael fights against evil, Gabriel announces God's saving work, and Raphael accompanies and brings healing.

Their feast invites us to trust God, listen to his word, and care for one another.

Feasts of Archangels

Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael (Sept 29)

Angels—messengers from God—appear frequently in Scripture, but only Michael, Gabriel and Raphael are named.

Michael appears in Daniel's vision as "the great prince" who defends Israel against its enemies; in the Book of Revelation, he leads God's armies to final victory over the forces of evil. Devotion to Michael is the oldest angelic devotion, rising in the East in the fourth century. The Church in the West began to observe a feast honoring Michael and the angels in the fifth century.

Gabriel also makes an appearance in Daniel's visions, announcing Michael's role in God's plan. His best-known appearance is an encounter with a young Jewish girl named Mary, who consents to bear the Messiah.

CATECHISM ANNOUNCEMENT:

We are excited to share this year of faith formation with you and your children. Thank you for your support, your prayers, and your involvement—it makes all the difference!

Snacks & Fellowship Potluck

One way that all families can help with the Catechism program is by sending small, finger food snacks along to share before class begins. The parish will provide food but we ask that each family that is able to, please bring something along. Snack ideas include: cheese, crackers, cut up fruit or veggies, granola bars, yogurt cups, mini muffins.

Please note that all family members are welcome and encouraged to participate during this time of fellowship. This will allow parents to get to know one another as well as offer time for teachers to connect with families.

New this year, we are also asking each family to volunteer to help clean up after one of the snack times. Please see the sign-up list to add your name to one date, many hands make light work!
